

Chief Operating Officer (COO)

Closely shadows the Chief Executive Officer!

Tip&Go is looking for a COO with significant experience (15 years or over) in the Hotel Industry

- Oversees company operations, project timelines, business developments, and employee productivity while building a highly inclusive culture to ensure team members thrive.
- Works with the CEO to set and drive the organizational vision and mission, corporate strategy, and hiring needs.
- Measures and analyzes current revenue streams, offerings, and relationships to optimize business growth and revenue.
- Strategically manages, organizes, and coordinates employees from different departments and locations to ensure efficiency.

Commenté [FMM[1]: J'éliminerais ça. C'est redondant.

- Implements financial procedures, policies and programs to drive the company's operating capabilities and surpass the industry average.
- Assesses and implements processes and technologies to improve on current situation.
- Builds and maintains excellent relationships with other professionals and organizations in the industry.

Full description to follow with shortlisted candidates.

Francis Léonard

CEO

fleonard@tip-go.com

www.tip-go.com